Church Mission Statement

Pastor's Message

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:6)

I was unfamiliar with Advent and its many traditions until I joined the Lutheran Church.

Consequently, I have no childhood memories of Advent calendars or the lighting of the candles on Advent wreaths. Being unfamiliar led to one of my early mistakes as a new pastor. Before worship on the second Sunday in Advent, someone asked me if they should light the pink candle. Thinking it wouldn't make any difference I told them to go ahead. After the service my mistake was pointed out to me by many members of the congregation; almost as many as when I didn't include "A Mighty Fortress" on Reformation Sunday! I learned how important traditions are to Lutherans.

The celebration of Advent dates back over 1,500 years. It was originally intended to be a season of fasting and preparation. It was viewed as a counterpart to Lent and the color purple was associated to both. Over time the fasting part became less important and more emphasis was placed on the coming birth of Jesus. Wanting to emphasize the joy filled anticipation of the season, the Swedish Lutheran Church, along with many others, encouraged the use of blue instead of purple. Another newer addition was the addition of a pink candle of the third Sunday, representing joy.

During my early years of ministry in Pennsylvania, I became acquainted with a number of other traditions. The Lower Susquehanna Synod had some strict guidelines. They discouraged having decorated Christmas trees until Christmas Eve and suggested "Jessie Trees" instead. Also, Christmas hymns were only to be sung on Christmas Eve and the one or two Sundays afterwards. Even though I truly missed singing those beautiful hymns and I didn't understand the point of a "Jessie Tree," I did my best to respect and follow these Lutheran traditions.

However, over the years I became much more flexible. It seems to me that insisting on a solemn observation of Advent while living in a society fully embracing the Christmas season, is an exercise in futility. Additionally, we're living though times that are rife with anxiety and uncertainty, I believe it's critical that we take every opportunity to experience the joy of Christmas. So, let's join together in singing the hope of Christmas and the joy of God's love.

Merry Christmas,

Pastor Sharon
